

Set yourself a challenge - how many of these learning activities can you complete? Remember you do not have to complete everything.

Spellings: Each week set yourself a set of 10 words from the Y1/2 or Yr3/4 common exception words and ask your parents to test you at the end of the week. Try putting the words into sentences, use a dictionary (you can find dictionaries online if you don't have one at home) if you aren't sure of the meaning.

Here are some good games you can use for free :

This week I would like you to practise the homophones - there their they're to too two hear here

Can you put these words into sentences, remembering to use capital letters and full stops? Can you draw pictures for each word to help you to remember the spelling? For example -

There are also grammar and spelling games set on Active Learn

Handwriting

<https://www.kidzone.ws/cursive/>

Remember when you are practising your handwriting to start each letter on the line. Practise two lines of each letter, when you feel confident that you are forming each letter correctly you can try to write some words. Practise any letters you feel you need more practise forming correctly.

Reading

Choose a story here -

https://www.oxfordowl.co.uk/for-home/library-page?view=details&query=&type=book&age_group=&book=&book_type=Non-fiction&series=Oxford+Reading+Tree

(You can register free for this website.)

If you could ask the author 3 questions about the book, what would you ask them?

Can you retell the story to a member of your family?

If your book is a non-fiction book:

Can you locate headings, subheadings or diagrams? Can you write three facts you have learnt? Can you add your own section and research more information?

You can try some quick comprehensions here -
